PERSONAS.

N. B. McCormick is attending Supreme Court at Topeka.

Miss Katie Browne visited her home at Norton, Sunday.

Attorney C. A. Lewis is attending Supreme Court at Topeka this week.

Miss Jessie Loar is visiting in Colby this week at her uncle's, Co. Attorney Loar.

Mr. J. F. Stutesman of Belleville, was in the city Sunday, visiting acquaintances.

E. A. Hakes, they horse buyer, was here yesterday he succeeded in buying five horses.

O. W. Bickford has gone to Alabama with two car-loads of horses for the southern market.

Rev. John Wilson will make a short visit with friends in the eastern part of the State this week.

We understand that Gus Webster, who recently went to Los Angeles, Cal., is so far delighted with the country.

Mrs. Fred Gardner and children, of Colorado Springs, visited at the residence of R. A. Handy last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hahnenkratt, of Colorado Springs, were here a part of this and last week visiting his brother John Hahnenkratt. They are removing to Georgia.

R. F. Strong, late of Illinois, thinks now is the time to buy Kansas land. Last year the whole country suffered from drought. He says western Kansas will become a great country yet.

Attorney George A. Spaulding is at Topeka in attendance on the Supreme Court. After court is over he will be in company of others on a hunting expedition down in the Indian Territory.

Oscar Strain has been tendered a position as book-keeper in a leading mercantile house in Colorado Springs and has accepted the place. He is a steady, competent young man and we are glad to learn he has secured a good position.

J. D. Matteson is preparing to return to his farm in three or four weeks or as soon as his term of office expires. Jud has been in Phillips county about as long as anybody and proposes to stay here and farm. He has made a good officer.

Dr. Wallace with Geo. A. Spaulding and a party of St. Joe, sportman will go on a hunting expedition in a few days into the Indian Territory. We cautioned the Doctor against the Ghost dancing Indians. They may make a ghost of him if he is not cautious.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cole, of Phillipsburg, came over Thursday evening. Mr. Cole returned Friday morning. Mrs. Cole will remain a short time visiting relatives. She is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Watson.—Long Island Inter-Ocean.

Miss Nellie Shearer, daughter of County Attorney Shearer, is in the city the guest of Attorney Hays and wife. Miss Shearer is a charming mezzo-soprano singer. Society will now have an opportunity to hear splendid singing by Miss Shearer and Mrs. Hays.—Long Island Inter-Ocean.

Notice.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Phillips Co. Agricultural and Mechanical Association will be held at the Court House, Tuesday Dec. 9th, 1890, at 2 o'clock p. m., at which time Directors, President, V. President, Secretary, Treasurer and General Superintendent will be elected for one year.

G. W. Bickford, Sec'y.

—Miss Anna Hickenlooper, the accomplished preceptress in the primary department of the public schools gave the scholars of her department a banquet at her home Wednesday. It was the celebration of her birthday, and the children were delightfully entertained. Miss H. has special prominence in the hearts of her pupils.—Long Island Inter-Ocean.

—A reception and donation will be given to Rev. E. H. Fleisher and bride, at the M. E. Church, Monday evening Dec. 8th. Introductions from 7:30 to 8:30. A short program to follow. Free-will offerings of such things as a newly married Methodist preacher and wife would need will be acceptable. Everyone cordially invited. Come and get acquainted.

—Last Tuesday evening a merry party of our people gathered at the residence of Mr. C. H. Leffingwell, in response to invitations extended by that gentleman and wife and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McNay. The new game of "Halm" was thoroughly enjoyed, as was also a bounteous supply of seasonable dainties for the inner man.

—Rice Emery, who some four years ago sold his farm in the eastern part of this county and went to what was then Washington Territory, returned last week and bought the Harvey place near Lyle. He has returned with the rheumatism as a reminder that when you contemplate leaving Decatur county you should consult your health as well as your pocket.—Oberlin Herald.

—Brother McNay is extremely sensitive over the many criticisms he is receiving for the political crookedness in and general bad management of the last campaign in this county. Our neighbor seems to be unfortunate. For a time he was promoted in the G. A. R., and political management rapidly, but he did not wear. He has come down "kernalap." It makes him rave and take on so for us to allude to his escapades that we desist from further remarks. We don't want to be the cause of his having a fit. We will only add in conclusion that the influence of the Mackgomery and Montnay Ring is broken, and no amount of kicking and hurling epithets at Dague will re-instate it. Let good citizens rejoice.

—About twenty-five or thirty persons, friends of Judge W. W. Gill, gave him a surprise on Thanksgiving evening by calling in a body at his office about eight o'clock with baskets filled with refreshments. Mr. Gill is a lone bachelor and his home is therefore at his office. He was found "at home" and in a very pleasant mood though quite embarrassed by the call of so many ladies and gentlemen. He however soon regained his self possession and with the assistance of Mrs. Frank Stinson made all his guests feel quite at home. Refreshments were served at about 10:30. A very pleasant evening was spent by all the participants.

G. W. Cole and Frank Strain have consolidated their stocks and formed a copartnership under the firm name of Cole & Strain. They have the only exclusive grocery store in town and will carry a full assortment of everything in their line. They also handle corn and feed of all kinds, including oil cake meal, which will be in a few days. They pay the highest market price for country produce poultry, etc. The public is cordially invited to call and examine their goods and get prices. Good goods at lowest prices. Prompt attention, honest weights and courteous treatment, is their motto. West side public square, 2d door south of post-office.

—Some of the newspapers of western Kansas are advertising as frauds certain men who take their country paper year after year paying nothing and then leaving the country without paying up or even saying "thank you." Occasionally a fellow sneaks away after thus treating us. We keep a record of them. We ascertain where they have gone and some time they will hear from us probably. It is a shabby mean trick to take a home paper several years on credit and then slip away without either paying or making any excuse for not paying.

—Many of those who left Rooks county in the past few months write that they will return to old Rooks as soon as they are able. Those who journeyed to far Washington are generally disgusted with their surroundings. Rain all the time is found to be less endurable than the worst dry spell in Kansas. It is far more provocative of low spirits to be drowned out than dried up, and there isn't much more money to be made by the soaking than the desiccating process. So the boys want to get back as a rule, and we will give them a hearty welcome when they come.—Rooks County Record.

Letter List.

Following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed in the postoffice at Phillipsburg, Kan., Nov. 27, '90:

I will pay the highest market price for fat cattle, hogs, sheep, calves, and lambs. Call and see me on south side of the square, before you sell.

E. H. EVANS.

The First Step.

Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do any thing to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning, you are taking the first step into Nervous Prostration. You need a Nerve Tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great Nerve Tonic and Alternative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the Liver and Kidneys resume healthy action. Fry a bottle. Price 50c at G. W. Bickford's store.

—Let the papers all over the country reprint notices of dead beats skipping out owing for a number of years subscription. Advertise them ahead that they may be well received in their new quarters.—Kensington Mirror.

Mother.

Lines written in memory of Mrs. Alonzo Woodward.

Our home was bright and happy,
Made so by a mother's love,
Her bright and beaming countenance,
Like sugar's smiles from above.
Our mother! Oh! our mother!
Will we never meet thee more?
Oh! to behold thy smiling face,
And clasp thy hand once more.
Thy voice was so melodious,
Sweet the sounds were to my ear,
Thy very motion seemed to be,
Our happiness while here.
But thy hands we calmly folded,
As we laid thee there to rest,
We gazed; and then we left thee
In the peaceful arms of death.
But we'll meet thee, yes, we'll meet,
When the trials of life are o'er,
We'll meet thee on that golden strand,
Yes meet to part no more.
G. G. R.

—Among the pretty Thanksgiving weddings was that of Rev. Emanuel H. Fleisher, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Phillipsburg, Kansas, and Miss Francis A. Barrett, neice of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Swan, at whose residence, 623 Taurome avenue, the happy event occurred. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. A. H. Tevis, of Washington avenue M. E. church, this city, in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a delightful reception and supper were given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swan.

Rev. Fleisher is a young and prominent member of the M. E. clergy of Kansas, and his bride is a well known and accomplished young lady of this city. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable presents from their host of friends and relatives. Those present at the wedding were: Rev. Dr. A. H. Tevis and wife, Joseph Swan and wife, D. M. Swan and wife, Mr. Barger and wife, Misses Stoyer, Amelia Hayes, Belle Henry Maund Yonmans, Al. and Sue La-Grange, Lettie Wood, Winfield Freeman and wife, Mrs. Sitze, William Dixon and wife and Miss Carrie Dixon, Mrs. E. O. Hoag and Miss Eva Hoag, Mrs. Whittier, Mrs. L. A. Palmer, L. A. Palmer, D. A. Yonmans, Kansas City, Mo., Judge and Mrs. Herman, Olathe, Kas.—Kansas City Journal.
